

EUROWEB: 'EUROPE THROUGH TEXTILES' (CA 19131)

CALL FOR MENTORS

If you are
An experienced researcher in academic field and you would like to be a mentor for a young scholar in the Textile Heritage please apply for the Virtual Mobility Grant

by July, the 23rd 2024

Up to ten grants (à 1450 euros) can be awarded for mentor positions

Mentor's tasks within Virtual Mobility Grant

- Building and transfer of knowledge through collaboration
- Generating capacity building and new skills
- Possible impact on career development
- Developing science communication and project writing skills
- Feedback on mentee's research aims and methods
- First online meeting in the 30st of July 2024
- Virtual meetings (at least two) with a mentee in August

Applying

- All Action's participant(s) with a primary affiliation to an institution located in a COST Full Member country and has/have to be affiliated to at least one of the working groups
- The application shall be submitted in e-COST (<https://e-services.cost.eu/user/login>) and included among other things the following information:
 - Working plan: topics and activities offered by the mentor
 - Plan for participation: mentor's professional skills, expectations for mentee
 - Expected outputs: how the grant supports young researcher's career
- Please read also the call for mentees:
<https://euroweb.uw.edu.pl/news/members-and-research/upcoming-euroweb-mentorship-programme-call-for-prospective-mentees/>

Assistance: Riina Rammo (riina.rammo@ut.ee)